THE NEW BEDFORD STRIKE SPREADING.

New-Bedford, Mass., Sept. 30.—The number of strikers at the Hathaway mills was more than doubled this morning, when most of the card-room employees in No. 2 mill stopped work and joined the operatives of the card-room of No. 1 mill, who are on strike. Secretary Gould, of the card and picker-room operatives, has issued a call for a special meeting to be held to-morrow afternoon.
The call says that the members of the union have been cut down at these mills, in some cases from 20 to 30 per cent, and that the agent told a delegation from the union that he was only too glad to get a chance to shut his mill down for six months.
